

DWAYNE CHISM

Executive Committee

Men of Color in Educational Leadership

Dr. Dwayne Chism is the Dean of the School of Education at Peru State College in Peru, Nebraska. He supports equity work at the local, state, and national levels and works to support the development of current and aspiring leaders of color across the United States. Chism previously served as a principal supervisor, principal, and teacher. In 2018, he founded Shifting Perspectives, LLC, to help schools navigate diversity to create equitable conditions for learning. Dwayne also serves on MCEL's Executive Committee.
